REVISED GAME LAWS.

The Hunting Season is Here—States and States to be Remembered. Now that the real hunting season is open the HERALD, at the request of a number of readers, publishes the list of the revised game laws.

Game birds and mammals may be killed only during the following seasons: Elk and deer, November 1st to November 30th, inclusive. No fawn may be killed when in its spotted coat, nor elk or deer hunted with dogs. Dogs paroling or trailing elk or deer may be killed by persons who so hunt, and the killing of elk or deer in the water, when driven thereto by dogs, is prohibited.

Pheasants, or pinnated grouse, may not be killed in the night time in any manner whatever, and the use of any artificial light, battery or other deception, with intent to attract or deceive game, is prohibited. Game birds and mammals may be killed only by shooting them with a gun, and the use of ferrets, traps, snares, nets, bird lime, swivel guns, deer licks, pit falls, turkey blinds or other contrivances or devices for taking game, is prohibited. Wild fowled will not be shot at from a stand, and no person may be shot at.

Interfering with the nests or eggs of game birds is prohibited. Hares and rabbits, November 1st to December 15th, inclusive. Woodcock, October 15th to December 15th, inclusive; also during the month of July. Wild ducks and geese, September 1st to April 30th, inclusive. Plover, July 15th to December 31st, inclusive. Rail and reed birds, September 1st to November 30th, inclusive. Squirrels, wild turkey, pheasants, grouse, quail or partridges, prairie chickens, October 15th to December 15th, inclusive. English, Mongolian and Chinese pheasants may not be killed until 1902.

The killing and catching of song and insectivorous birds is at all times prohibited. Wild pigeons may not be killed on nesting ground, nor from nests discharged within one mile thereof, and persons not citizens of the commonwealth must procure a license before taking wild pigeons. Hunting or shooting on Sunday is prohibited. No person may kill in one day more than ten ruffed grouse or pheasants, or more than fifteen quail or Virginia partridges, or more than ten woodcock, or more than two wild turkeys, and no person may kill more than two deer in one season.

The sale of game, the hunting of game for the purpose of selling it, the purchase of game for the purpose of again selling it, and the shipping of game out of the state is prohibited. Proof of possession of game, or the fresh skin or carcass of a game bird or mammal, or portion thereof, out of season, is prima facie evidence of a violation of the law. Violation of the game laws is punished by penalties ranging from $25 to $100 or one day in jail for each dollar of penalty imposed. One half of the penalties go to the informer. It is strictly an American remedy; home-made and without foreign favor, we refer to Salvation Oil, the greatest cure on earth for pain.

MAHANOY CITY.

A Boy Mangled in Rollers, and Dies From the Effects.

The funeral of John Junie, who died at the Miners' hospital, from pistol shot wounds received last Friday night at the hands of Joseph Kossaris took place to-day. John Griffith, employed at the Draper colliery, had his right foot painfully mangled by a large rock falling upon it. He was taken to the Miners' hospital and is in the same ward with his brother, Edward, who was killed by a mule on Saturday last.

Andrew Smith, car runner at the North Mahanoy colliery, suffered a painful injury of the left hand this morning by a lump of coal falling from a car. For sick headache, sick stomach and loss of appetite take Dr. Bull's Pills, the best medicine for the common, every-day complaints. 25 cts.

POLITICAL POINTS.

—R. Bruce Clayton has received his commission as postmaster of Ashland. He has appointed Edward Waters as his assistant. —Ex-Governor Patton will stamp the state for the Democratic candidates. —With a full party vote next month, the Republicans will carry the county by a handsome majority. Get out the vote, should be the watchword. —Governor Hastings is leaving his own state to stamp Ohio for Max Hanna, the man who said, "Hastings has no more backbone than a lath room towel."

—The Central Republican Club, of Pottsville, is about the only party organization that has not endorsed the county ticket. —Hugh O'Donnell, of Homestead fame and who knows here, will open headquarters in Pottsville in the interest of Thompson, the independent candidate for State Treasurer. —It is important that the county be held in line this fall, and the way to do that is for every Republican to go to the polls and vote for the party nominees.

NEW JERSEY'S LATE ELECTION.
Contention That the Anti-Gambling Amendment was Illegally Carried. Trenton, Oct. 20.—The state board of canvassers yesterday afternoon canvassed the returns of the recent constitutional election and found that the anti-gambling amendment had been carried by 502 majority and the anti-intemperance amendment by 7,416. The women's suffrage amendment was defeated by 10,028. The returns also showed 961 rejected ballots. Ex-Senator Edwards appeared before the board and raised the point that the rejected ballots had been improperly thrown out, and that if they had been counted the anti-gambling amendment would have been defeated. His point was that the ballots had been rejected under the general election law, which provides that ballots can only be marked with a pen and black ink, or with a black pencil. The special election law under which the election was held provided for the marking of ballots with a pencil, and says nothing about color. He wanted the state canvassing board to send the returns back to the county boards for correction. The proposition was rejected, and the two amendments were declared carried.

Governor Griggs consented to withhold until Monday the proclamation making the two amendments a part of the constitution. Senator Edwards is understood to represent the race track men, and he claims that the law will permit of the going behind of the returns to establish the contention he has raised.

Going After Jewelry Thieves.
Scranton, Pa., Oct. 20.—Sergeant of Police Deter has gone to Harrisburg for regulation papers for the three jewelry crooks recently arrested in Chicago. Nearly all the identified plunder was the result of the burglary of the residence of Gerrard Bogert, general superintendent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road, in this city three weeks ago. It was valued at nearly $2,000.

Baronet's Wife Charged with Forgery.
London, Oct. 20.—Lady Tatton Sykes, wife of the famous Yorkshire sporting baronet, was charged before a magistrate yesterday with forging her husband's name on a bill of exchange for $1,000 in connection with a stock transaction. The magistrate dismissed the case, and in doing so said it seemed to him that the court had been used for an improper purpose, intimating that the charge, while not wholly unsupported by evidence, had been brought in order to damage the reputation of the defendant.

Monument to Heroes Unveiled.
Tunkhannock, Pa., Oct. 20.—The Wyoming county soldiers' and sailors' monument was unveiled yesterday before the largest assemblage ever gathered in Tunkhannock. The addresses were by Judge Alfred Darte, of Wilkesbarre; Hon. Terence V. Powderly and others. The shaft is of Vermont granite, 33 feet high, and weighs 72 tons. Figures of a soldier and sailor guard the base, while a color sergeant stands at the top. It is the finest memorial in northern Pennsylvania.
